Truman To Receive Cross-the-Equator Initiation Thursday

By The Associated Press

AT SEA, Sept. 9—President Harry S. (Senior Polliwog) Truman fell victim to the war of nerves aboard this equator-bound battleship today.

The Chief Executive and more than 1,600 other Polliwogs—people who have never proved their endurance by "crossing the line"—will have to show their mettle Thursday.

Rumors of what is in store for them spread around the ship as the 350 (shellbacks) who will conduct their initiation held secret meetings and whispered ominously in little groups.

The Missouri was about 270 miles off Ponta Darela, coastal city of the state of Espirito Santo, Brazil, early today. Extending eastward off this coast for 200 miles in a bank known as Abrolhos Approximately enough, this is freely translated from Portugese to mean "keep your eyes open."

The initiation may include a good wetting in a tank, slight shock of electricity, a shaving or any other discomforts the shellbacks can devise. Paddling is a favorite.

The punishment is meted out by Neptunus Rex himself on the fore-castle deck.

Fleet Admiral William D. Leahy, the senior shellback aboard, could smile serenely as fellow passengers in the "admirals' country" squirmed. An old salt, he was initiated four decades ago.

Another broad smile is worn by Chief Machinist's Mate J. H. Harrington of Long Beach, Calif.

He is to be Neptunas Rex.

TAFT-HARTLEY ACT UPHELD

Texas Judge Rules Non-Communist Affidavits Legal and Constitutional.

By The Associated Press

FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 9—In the first such ruling on the Taft-Hartley law, Federal District Judge T. Whitfield Davidson Monday upheld the requirement that labor unions file affidavits that their officers are not Communists.

The judge declared that the non-Communist provision is fully constitutional — legal, consistent and proper.

The ruling was made at a hearing here involving the Oil Workers International Union (CIO). He held that the CIO had not complied with the law, thus the OWIU did not have recourse to the NLRB.

The OWIU had filed a petition seeking to force regional NLRB Director Edwin A. Elliott to count ballots in an election of workers of the Deep Oil Development Co. at Wichita Falls, Tex.

Restraint Held Legal

"The constitution guarantees a representative form of government," Judge Davidson declared, "and it is consistent and proper to throw restraint around any organization by denying privileges to those who would destroy this form of government."

Davidson ruled that the OWIU was not eligible for certification as a bargaining unit because the CIO failed to comply with the provision of the Taft-Hartley law which requires filing of non-Communist affidavits.

(In Chicago, AFL President William Green said that he believed top AFL leaders would sign non-Communist affidavits in order to use the national labor relations board in jurisdictional fights with rival unions.

(A decision was put off by the executive council until Friday morning, Green said, to permit a legal inquiry into a ruling by NLRB General Counsel Robert N. Denham that AFL council members must sign the affidavits.

(Top CIO officers have not yet agreed to sign the affidavits and a final decision won't be reached by CIO unions until their convention in Boston beginning Oct. 13.)

"Must Live by Laws"

In handing down the ruling on the non-Communist provision, Judge Davidson declared it "behooves the government to attempt to control the growth of any system that would attempt to control the government" since, he said, the constitution guaranteed a republican form, and the people were expected to live by the laws which their representatives made.

The judge continued, "Communism is recognized as not being a representative form of government * * * Communism is more the dictatorial type * * * elections under a dictator are one-sided affairs. People do not have a free choice.

"If the law means what it says, the provisions of it must be complied with * * *."

BUYING LAND FOR DELAWARE DAM RESUMED

85 Property Owners in Marion, Morrow and Delaware Counties Affected.

The federal government will resume within the next few weeks the acquisition of lands for the $7,490,000 Delaware dam and reservoir project, The Associated Press reported today.

This new development will affect about 85 land owners in Marion, Morrow and Delaware counties whose lands lie north of the dam and are below an elevation of 920 feet above sea level.

Funds Insufficient

Lt. Col. John R. Sharp said that sufficient funds not having been appropriated by congress to buy all the lands ultimately required for full operation of the project, "it is planned to acquire at this time those properties which lie within the lower portion (below 920 feet) of the reservoir."

Sharp is executive officer for the Huntington corps of U. S. Engineers, which has charge of construction of the project on the Olentangy river six miles from Delaware.

Ultimately it is planned to buy all lands up to 947 feet above sea level so that the level of the reservoir can be raised during floods. About 13 per cent of the 8,700 acres necessary for ultimate flood control have already been acquired.

R. P. Witten, project manager for the Engineers' Land Acquisition office in Delaware, said that land appraisal will begin this week.

Land Owners Notified

Letters notifying of the engineer's immediate plans have gone out to the property holders, saying that "as additional funds are appropriated by congress, properties lying on the outer rim and in the upper reaches of the reservoir will be purchased."

Sharp said there are "a number" of defective titles in the reservoir area, and that for the purpose of obtaining possession of the land at the earliest practicable date, in order to permit clearing of timber and brush, "it will be necessary to file condemnation proceedings."

The proceedings in any such cases in Delaware and Morrow counties will be filed in the Columbus, O., district federal court, and for those in Marion county, in the district court at Toledo.

MARION MAN NEW HIGHWAY PATROLMAN

R. W. Altenberger To Be Sworn in Tomorrow.

Robert W. Altenberger, 27, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. I. Altenberger, of 524 North State street, is one of 34 war veterans to be sworn in tomorrow as Ohio state highway patrolmen following 12 weeks of intensive training, an Associated Press dispatch reported today. New patrolmen will be sworn in at ceremonies at the patrol's training school near Columbus.

Serving in the Army Air corps three years, Altenberger was attached to the 851 Engineers Battalion in Europe. He worked in the Marion Power Shovel company after his discharge from the army in 1946. He is graduate of Harding High school.

The new class brings the patrol's uniformed force to 304 men, Superintendent George Mingle said.

TWA Granted Rights To Passenger Service At New City Airport

Transcontinental and Western Airlines was authorized yesterday by the Civil Aeronautics Board to include Marion on segments of both north and south and east and west runs, The Associated Press reported from Washington.

TWA is the first major airline to be authorized to include Marion on any of its routes. Others having applied for permission to enter Marion are the United, Eastern and Trans-Ohio lines. The CAB has not announced its final decision on the latter applications.

Mayor H. L. Dowler said last night that the decision by the CAB and TWA service into Marion was "surprising" in view of the fact that TWA had not originally made application to the CAB to include Marion on any of its runs.

The Associated Press reported TWA had been granted permission to include Marion on an extension of its Indianapolis-Dayton segment to Cleveland, with stops at Springfield and Mansfield. Permission was also granted to TWA to include Marion on a Dayton-Toledo route via Columbus, subject to the restriction that Chicago and Toledo not be served on the same flight unless stops are made at Dayton.

One Other Provision

Finally, TWA was allowed to service Marion on its Chicago-Peoria-Pittsburgh route subject to the restriction that Chicago and Cleveland and Ft. Wayne and Cleveland not be served on the same flights. Mansfield and Lima are included in the east and west flight through Marion.

Airline service to Marion is one of the important aspects in the plans for the proposed municipal airport. The project when completed may near the three-quarter million dollar mark. The city bond issue of $400,000 has been matched so far with a federal tentative appropriation of $246,000 expected by city officials to become available at such time as the Civil Aeronautics Authority gives approval on the detailed plans for the airport.

Detailed plans are now in the hands of the CAA for final approval. When approval will be granted, is not definite, according to Mayor Dowler and J. B. Bray, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee.

Bids Delayed

The city has made application for the federal funds. According to city officials, bids for the construction of the airport will not be let until these funds have been obtained and the CAA has approved final plans for the airport. Clark, Hickey and Co. of Chicago is the engineering firm retained by the city to handle the airport plans.

Mr. Bray said that in all probability the first contract to be awarded by the city would be for stage I of the construction job. This portion of the work would include all clearing of the site, all grading and drainage and the construction of one main paved runway and two paved taxi-strips.

The main runway would be laid in a northwest-southeast direction would be 110 feet wide and 3,800 feet in length. Sod strips on each side of the runway would give a total graded width of 550 feet. The paved taxi-strips would be 50 feet wide and so laid that they later could be lengthened and widened to provide the other two of the three proposed main runways. Further scope of stage I would include construction of a hard surfaced parking area and fencing of the entire 644 acres.

Mr. Bray said the completion of stage I would give Marion an airport suitable for both commercial and private flying and that this procedure should insure that funds contributed by the federal government, plus the city bond issue funds would safely cover the completion of a basic class three airport permitting usage by twin-engine aircraft. It should also leave in hand, he said, ample funds for the later construction of a suitable administration building and hangars.

LOAN GRANTED MARION REC

Funds To Be Used To Improve Lines and Build New Sub-Station.

An $85,000 loan to the Marion Rural Electric Cooperative was approved yesterday by the Rural Electrification Administration, according to an Associated Press report today. Loans totaling $3,587,000 to cooperatives in eight states were approved and are to be used to aid extension of electric service in rural areas.

The Marion REC plans to use the loan to improve 388 miles of existing lines and for the erection of a substation in Richland township, located southeast of Marion.

Lines Improved

Rephasing of the single lines in the southeast section of Wyandot county extending toward Marseilles was started early in the sumer and officials hope the work summer and officials hope the work months. The single lines are being replaced with three and four lines to provide more power to the rural users. The addition of the new wires is almost entirely in the southeast section of Wyandot county.

A portion of the loan will be used to erect a substation in Richland township to provide better service for the eastern section of Marion county. Building of the new station will not be started for a while due to the present high cost of materials, officials said.

Two Now In Use

Two sub-stations are already in use, one located just off route 4 north of Marion which services the northern section of the county and another at the power plant, south of Marion which services the western part of the county.

The last loan granted by REA was last year when a loan was approved for the building of new offices at 203 South Prospect street. The office is now located at 146½ South Main street.

Cooperatives have 20 years to pay back the loans.

TAFT STARTS TOUR OF WEST

Promises Decision on Running in 1948 by Early October.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 — Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) stopped off in Chicago between trains today before heading west on a 25-day political "pulse feeling" tour.

Before leaving Columbus last night he was informed by Ohio Republican leaders that "very encouraging" reports had been received on his probable campaign for the presidential nomination.

The senator said he would spend today resting, and would make no public appearances. He said he had not arranged any conferences with Illinois party leaders during his brief stay here.

After his long swing through the west Taft will return to Chicago on Oct. 9. His first western stop will be San Francisco.

To Announce Decision

Taft has told Ohio Republicans he would announce early in October his decision on making the race for president. Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R-Ohio), who is slated to manage the Taft campaign if the senator decides to run, said party organizations in other states already had been informed of "the availability of Sen. Taft." Brown added:

"The reports from the other states are very encouraging, a lot of leaders in these states, who were not notified by us, wrote

LEVY PUT ON ADMISSIONS AS OLD ACT FADES

Three Per Cent Tax Replaces State Charge; Will Raise $12,000 for City.

City Council, Monday night adopted an ordinance levying a three per cent admission tax effective Oct. 1 and an ordinance calling for a $20 per month pay hike for city employes.

The comprehensive new tax ordinance which covers individuals, partnerships, associations and corporation is set up to replace the statute under which the state collected three per cent on all admissions and which expires Oct. 1.

The city admission tax ordinance was set up to provide revenue for the general fund of the city. In effect, it means that admissions revenues that previously went to the state will now go to the city of Marion. William G. Slack, president of council, pointed out that admission prices here will not be affected by the new ordinance. Anticipated revenue from the tax was estimated at $12,000 annually by Elmer Shaw, city auditor.

Action by city council on the tax proposition is comparable to that followed by neighboring cities. The framework of the ordinance is similar to that enacted at Bucyrus, Mayor H. L. Dowler said.

Places Affected

The three per cent tax is to be levied on the amounts received for admission to any place within the city limits, including admission by season tickets or subscription. Included is any public performance for profit by cabaret or any other similar entertainment in case the admission charge is by service or cover charge.

The tax is to be paid by agencies coming under the ordinance on or before the tenth of each month to the city auditor. Tax return shall show number of taxable admissions collected during the preceding month. Delinquent returns will be assessed at the rate of one per cent interest until paid.

After Oct. 1, it will be against the law to conduct any form of amusement at any permanent or temporary location, or any itinerant form of amusement in the city without a license granted by the city auditor at a fee of $1, renewable annually Jan. 1 of each year. Licenses are not transferable.

Penalty for Violation

The tax ordinance is backed up by a penalty for violation. Amusement enterprises conducted without a license may draw a fine of from $25 to $100, with each day the violation continues constituting a separate offense. Failure to pay the tax may draw a like fine for the first offense and for the second or subsequent offenses may be fined from $100 to $500, if a corporation, and if an individual may be imprisoned up to 60 days.

The city auditor is empowered with the right to perscribe rules and regulations for the administration of the ordinance including the right to revoke or suspend licenses.

Council approved the motion to suspend rules in order to permit three readings on the measure last night, so that the local tax levy would be effective without lapse when the state statute expire. Council vote on adoption was unanimous.

280 Get Raises

Approximately 280 city employes will receive an additional $20 per month pay increase starting Sept. 16 under the terms of the emergency salary measure passed by council last night.

The pay hike which is estimated to cost the city upwards of $67,000 annually, grants a 75 cent increase to day workers, 10 cents to hourly workers and $20 to monthly paid employes. The measure covers all city employes with the exception of Humane Society employes who do not entirely come under the jurisdic-

WINTER'S A LONG TRIP

FILL-ER UP!

You wouldn't start a long trip with only two gallons of gasoline. Nor would you start a long, hard winter with only a few weeks' supply of coal. In both cases, it's wise at the start to say "Fill 'er up!"

There's no time like the present for getting ready for that long, hard winter ahead. A binful of coal — of Fuel Satisfaction — in your basement now will take the cares of winter ahead off your mind, and make the path an easier one when snow flies and the winds howl.

So call your coal dealer today, and you'll avoid the last-minute, "Johnny-Ōrder-Lately" rush. Order now — say "Fill 'er up!" — and bid yourself "Happy Wintering!"

Marion Man On Long Swim In Lake Erie Water

An unusual display of swimming stamina occurred in Lake Erie off Lakeside last Wednesday when Harold Fralich, 24, of 387 Blaine avenue swam the four and three-fourths miles from Kelleys Island to the mainland in four and a quarter hours, for an average speed of about 1.1 miles per hour. Fralich was accompanied by a cousin, Richard Rae of Sandusky, who followed him in an outboard motor boat.

Swimming leisurely against a rather strong headwind, Fralich had to tread water at one point to allow Rae to catch up with him after the boat's motor stalled. He could have made better time with the wind behind him, he said.

Staging the swimming stunt for the benefit of relatives gathered at Lakeside for a family reunion, the two cousins had traveled to Kelleys Island in the boat.

Fralich was a strong man on the Ohio Wesleyan university tank team until graduating in June. While stationed at San Antonio, Tex., during his three-year-service with the Army Air corps, he taught swimming to a group of Chinese cadets sent to the States for training. Besides earning swimming laurels in college, he earned recognition as a varsity debater, and as a scholar, being elected to Phi Beta Kappa. Fralich and his wife, the former Marjorie Ann Schoonover are parents of a son.

Fralich leaves for Ann Arbor today, where he is enrolled in the Law school. During the summer, he and his family have been living with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fralich of Blaine avenue.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

Opportunity definitely is limited in this country. . . . A Boston shoemaker has only three million dollars to show for years of hard work.

In any country with a recent chance to get rich he would have picked up at least three million five dollars.

But there are signs of change. . . . Bevin wants to redistribute our government gold and Jimmy Roosevelt would buff some of the gilt off our millionaires.

Jimmy says inherited wealth should be redistributed. Jimmy's grandma left a million which so far has not seeped down to the poor but these things take time.

Anyway, it shows that Jimmy's heart is in the right place even if the dough has failed to reach there.

* * *

And we are grateful to him anyway for the suggestion. . . . There is nothing like "share the wealth" plans for dizzying up a dull month.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN
Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

YANK FLIER FOILS LONDON "BOMBING"

By The Associated Press

PARIS, Sept. 9 — A young American flier credited with having saved London from being "bombed" by 10,000 Jewish propaganda pamphlets was hidden away today somewhere in England where he was flown by the RAF presumably for his own protection.

He is Reginald Gilbert, 24-year-old Birmingham, Ala., native who was said by French police to have joined the Jewish "Fighters for the Freedom of Israel"—the so-called Stern gang—to foil plans to wage a war of nerves against Britain including a pamphlet bombing of the British capital.

Police said they feared for the flier's life if the Stern gang ever caught up with him. Friends of the pilot sad he had been placed under the protection of Scotland Yard until he could be returned to America.

Nine persons are in the custody of French police as a result of Gilbert's alleged espionage, including Rabbi Baruch Korff, 33, alleged leader of the "bomb" plot, who was on a self-described hunger strike until "I have been freed" by French police. Korff was charged under a 1939 decree forbidding the possession of "pamphlets of foreign origin of a nature to undermine the defense of the country."

Conviction on this charge carries a sentence of one to five years.

Gilbert told friends he strung along with the plotters for 10 days with full knowledge of Scotland Yard and French police. The latter closed in on the group Saturday just before the takeoff for the "raid."

RABBI DENIES JEWISH BODIES BACK OF "RAID"

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 9 — Dr. Abba Hillel Silver of Cleveland, chairman of the American Zionist emergency council, declared today that "no responsible Jewish body" was behind the alleged plot to "bomb" London with 10,000 leaflets of the Stern band, Palestine underground group.

Dr. Silver, who returned on the British liner Queen Mary from a World Zionist organization conference at Zurich, Switzerland, said during a shipboarl news conference that "no organization or no responsible Jewish body was back of Rabbi (Baruch) Korff." American rabbi arrested by French police in connection with the alleged plot.

Dr. Silver said that the British handling of Jewish displaced persons aboard the exodus 1947 was "one of the most shameful chapters in English history. It was a most indecent climax of an indecent act to send the Jews to Germany.

"The British government, as distinguished from the people, has lost all sense of proportion in this business."

Members of the Marion Seventh day Adventist church will join their 220,000 fellow members in North America in raising a $600,000 famine relief offering Saturday, Sept. 13, it is announced by Elder Gauker, church pastor.

The fund, third such offering to be taken, will make it possible to continue the overseas relief program which has been carried on by the denomination for the past two years, Pastor Gauker told his congregation, pointing out that the needs are expected to be more desperate in Europe this winter than ever before.

According to a report by J. J. Strahle, Adventist relief director for Europe, the church has already distributed relief supplies totaling almost five million dollars, including 1,000 tons of clothing processed through New York and San Francisco warehouses or sent in small packages direct from the churches; CARE packages; and tons of food purchased in Europe and delivered to famine areas.

—In "The Years … by Dr. Wingate … the Bowman Gray … of Wake For- … Whittlesey. House … are a lot of sug- … can follow readily …

… go to a doctor: … won't have to … you remember … most important … blood pressure is emotional strain and that what you eat is not so important as how much.

Still about high blood pressure, Dr. Johnson writes: "Far be it from a humble practitioner to offer any advice about finance. My professional observation, however, has taught me that most men pay dearly, from a physical standpoint, for profits made by marginal trading and for highly speculative dealing of any kind. Where sex has wrecked its thousands of homes, financial worry has destroyed its tens of thousands."

Other subjects discussed by Johnson include:

1. You are sick after you get well from flu because it leaves you with low blood pressure.

2. Tuberculosis is one of the diseases most frequently overlooked in older people.

3. A stitch in the side, usually believed by laymen to be pleurisy, is more frequently an inflammation of a muscle between the ribs, due to gas trapped in the colon or under a rib, to neuralgia or to a spur on the spine.

4. Coronary thrombosis, the heart trouble that is high among executives, and actually higher among doctors than almost any other profession, is not nearly so often fatal or so disabling as was once believed.

It is a mistake, Dr. Johnson says, to think that ulcers are likely to become cancers.

"A poor way of reducing," he declares, "is to omit a meal. One of the chief factors in the formation of gallstones is stagnation of the bile. The gall bladder is merely a reservoir in which bile is stored and concentrated until the stimulus of food in the stomach causes it to empty. When a meal is skipped, there is no stimulus to empty the gall bladder."

Sex life definitely does not end with the menopause, he says.

Dr. Johnson thinks that bromide drugs are the most frequent cause of mental disturbances. Bromides, he says, have been until recently the chief habit-forming stuff in nearly all headache powders. Now most of the manufacturers have agreed not to use bromides for headaches.

An essential, more important than a vacation, is frequent, short respites from tension, he says, adding that everyone ought to have at least one afternoon a week free, and everyone should make Sunday a real day of rest.

About death, he writes: As a physician who has witnessed death again and again, I can testify that there is almost no reason to fear the actual process of dying. Almost invariably death brings its own anesthetic, which is usually effective for a period of time varying from a few hours to days, weeks, or even months.

5-Mill Operating Levy Sought at Mt. Gilead

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD, Sept. 9 — Mt. Gilead village councilmen at their last regular meeting voted to ask electors for approval of a five-mill operating levy at the Nov. 4 elections. The new levy would represent an increase of approximately one and one-half mills over the present operating levy now in force.

Mayor Ray Booher explained that the increase was made necessary by increased costs of operation and he said that the village at the present time is almost without funds.

Councilmen plan to use funds raised by the additional levy (estimated to be from $4,000 to $4,500) for making badly needed street repairs and for hiring a daytime patrolman for the village.

YOUR HEALTH

Ear Disease

In the past when patients suffering from the ear disease known as otosclerosis came to the doctor for help, he could only shake his head sadly and explain that medicine could do nothing to arrest the progress of their deafness.

Recently, however, surgery has found an answer to this problem in the form of a delicate operation which has been of benefit to many patients.

Otosclerosis is really a disease of the bone, in which the dense bony capsule surrounding the internal ear is replaced by an overgrowth of soft, spongy bone. As this spongy growth spreads, it interferes with the movement of the tiny bones in the middle ear which ordinarily transmit sound waves.

Otosclerosis occurs twice as often in women as in men. The first symptoms are often noticed during the late teens. However, the condition may come on gradually, so that deafness may be present for some time before it is noticed by the patient. In a considerable number of cases, the deafness is not noticed before the age of twenty to thirty years, or even later. It would appear that the disease occurs much more often in those of fair complexion than in those who are darker.

The spread with which the deafness progresses also varies to a great extent. Ringing in the ears or head noises are usually present. Many of the patients do not find these noises troublesome except when they are tired or worried. Now and then, a patient may also complain of some dizziness.

There are many forms of treatment for otosclerosis, and temporary improvement has resulted in some few instances. Hearing aids have been of great help to these patients and have enabled many of them to hear much better.

In 1938, Dr. Julius Lempert of New York described an operation designed to break through the barrier of bone which prevented sounds from reaching the innermost part of the ear. Apparently, this operation, known as fenestration, has brought about a restoration of hearing in many patients with otosclerosis.

It is, however, a delicate operation calling for special equipment and special experience. For instance, the structures operated upon are so small that most of the surgeons doing the fenestration operation use a special binocular microscope to do their work. Thus, it is apparent that satisfactory results can be obtained only by those who have had special training to develop the necessary skill and judgment.

If the nerve of hearing has been affected to any great extent, the operative treatment for otosclerosis will not help. Hence, before any patient with otosclerosis is treated surgically, his hearing must be carefully studied to be sure that there is sufficient hearing power remaining to allow him to benefit from the operation.

Fortunately the operation is not a dangerous one. The risk to life is negligible, and infection rarely occurs. It is usually advisable to operate on the most badly affected ear first. If it turns out that the hearing in this ear is improved, the possibility of operating on the other ear at a later date may be considered.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

D. E. C.: Often when I wake up in the morning my right hand is numb. What causes this?

Answer: Numbness in the hand may come from many conditions, such as poor circulation, nerve damage, muscle inflammation, and inflammation of the joints. Arthritis of the upper part of the spine may be responsible. I would suggest an investigation by a neurologist and orthopedic specialist to determine just what is wrong so that proper treatment may be carried out.

Steel, Shortage Of, Gets Sex Appeal As Kaiser Sounds Off

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN

United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—About the only fellow I know who can take a subject like steel, shortage of, and give it sex appeal is Henry (The Incredible) Kaiser. If we don't get more steel soon (this is a sample Kaiserism) there'll be such a depression we'll either give our country back to the Indians—or hand it over to the Russians.

It turned out that Kaiser had a new deal he wanted to present the Reconstruction Finance Corp., whereby the government would lower its valuation of his Fontana steel plant in California, he'd sell mortgage bonds to the public, and thus would boom western steel production. The details if you are interested, can be found on the financial page.

He told the capital's financial experts about his plans, the steel business in general, and the state of the nation as reflected in his own widely assorted enterprises. I don't know whether the white bumble bees flitting among the red blossoms on his cravat were symbolic. His idea was that people have got to produce more—like those bees—and how can they when they've got no steel?

Take one of the biggest automobile assembly plants in the west, he said, a new one geared to turn out 800 sedans a day in Long Beach, Calif., and producing none, because of no steel. One of the experts asked him what automobile company?

Kaiser beamed while the flash bulbs exploded. Modesty, he said, caused him to omit the name. But since the question was asked, well, it was the Kaiser-Fraser auto company's plant; a total loss so far because of no stuff to stamp out motor cars.

The man who has become since the war the fourth biggest automobile manufacturer in the world said he didn't really expect a depression. He doubted if anybody would give America to the Indians, or to Russia, either, because he believed there will be more steel, no matter what the old line steel industry claims.

"And watch the prices of automobiles come down," he roared, thumping the billiard-cloth covered table. "Nothing can stop 'em from coming down when we get the flow of material. All we need is steel.

Shortage Still Appalling

"Today, after two years of prophecies by the steel companies, the shortage still is appalling. It is staggering to the economy."

All manufacturing is suffering, he added. Many a week, he said, such giant corporations as General Motors Co., lose vast sums of money simply because they can't produce cars without the material.

Another example, he said, is a Los Angeles stove company, which buys steel in lumps from him, ships it east to be rolled into sheets, freights the sheets back to Los Angeles, and builds stoves. The steel which should have been $90 a ton actually costs $215. No wonder gas stoves are costly. And so on, he continued, throughout all industry. The shortages are raising prices, lowering profits, and squeezing business until even optimists like him can't help thinking about those Indians.

He's a convincing talker. Most of his competitors disagree with him. I'd hate to decide which side is right, but one thing I do know: Kaiser will have the whole nation worrying about the steel problem and that, there is no doubt, is good.

FIRE CHANGES ROYAL COUPLE'S PLANS. Sunninghill Park, (above) near Windsor Great Park, was to have been the residence of Princess Elizabeth and her bridegroom, Lt. Philip Mountbatten. A recent fire, which destroyed the entire south wing and caved in the roof, forced them to alter their plans. It was announced that the couple would have to look for another residence.

AKRON TO SPRAY REFUSE CANS IN WAR ON POLIO

Action Taken As 216th Case Is Reported, One Fatal.

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O., Sept. 9—A crew of 40 men was selected today to spray garbage can with DDT as the city took further steps to halt a polio outbreak that has resulted in 216 cases and taken one life in this area.

The city service director, Marvin L. Davis, said "We don't know that insects have anything to do with the outbreak, but spraying might help."

The decision was reached yesterday in special committee meeting called by Mayor Charles E. Slusser. An education program to encourage housewives to spray their cans with the solution also was planned.

Davis said the crew would follow city garbage collectors and use a 20 per cent solution.

The fatal case here was that of Mrs. Marjorie Pryor, 35.

Meanwhile, Cleveland reported its third polio death of the season, Sheldon B. Mayers, 24, and three new cases in Cincinnati brought the total there to 64 for the year. Seneca county reported its first case when an 11-month-old girl was taken to Toledo for treatment.

Staple Commodity Price Rise Noted As Food Dollar Dwindles

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 9—America's shrinking food dollar was being dragged through the wringer again today by a somewhat general advance in staple commodity prices.

Except for a reduction of five cents a pound retail for margarine in New York, the general trend was upward in the faster moving race for economic adjustment.

For the fourth consecutive day, The Associated Press index of 35 wholesale commodities reached another new all-time high yesterday at 192.26, compared with 1926 base year of 100.

Included in the continued advances were meat, coffee, butter, tallow, eggs and corn. Moreover, the whole dairy outlook was far from a pretty picture as described by Russell Fifer, executive secretary of the American Butter Institute.

Butter in Low Supply

The dairy industry, Fifer said, is going into the winter with an exceptionally low supply of butter and cream in storage and with two per cent less milk cows than a year ago. Since the peak milk production in 1944, he added, the number of milk cows has dropped seven per cent while consumer population since the start of the war has increased 10,000,000, many of them now "in heavy milk drinking ages."

Butter climbed another cent a pound on the New York and Chicago mercantile exchanges yesterday to new peaks for the year. Eggs advanced to 60 cents a dozen wholesale here, and porterhouse steak hit $1 a pound at New York retail outlets.

Probably foreshadowing further retail pork price hikes, hogs hit a new all-time high of $31.25 a hundredweight at the Denver stockyards yesterday, and a record top of $31 at the South San Francisco stockyards. Traders at Omaha, Sioux City, Iowa, and East St. Louis, Ill., snapped up the offerings there at $30 a hundredweight.

Corn at Record

Although grains in futures trading at Chicago were mostly lower in yesterday's dealings, one cash corn transaction brought a record high of $2.57¾ a bushel.

Two of the nation's largest chain grocery concerns boosted coffee two cents a pound retail in New York, tallow, used by soap manufacturers, was up a cent a pound.

Eugene C. Schultz, New York City commissioner of markets, gave these comparative retail prices there on a few food items:

Porterhouse steak, $1 a pound, up 31 cents over a year ago; bacon, 79 cents a pound, up nine cents over a year ago; butter 87 cents, up eight cents since last September; large eggs, 87 cents a dozen, up 10 cents; chuck steak 59 cents a pound, up four cents; chopped beef 49 cents, up 10 cents; veal cutlets 95 cents, up 20 cents; leg of lamb 65 cents, up six cents.

Poultry prices remained unchanged or slightly lower than those of September, Schultz said, with broilers and friers at 49 cents a pound, off two cents from a year ago, and roasting chickens unchanged at 55 cents.

- The new Safety Side Rest makes ironing easier because it takes less energy to roll the iron [illegible] than to lift an iron to a heel rest.
- Tru-Heat Control is the most accurate known type of heat control on any iron. No time-wasting drops in temperature ... no dangerous overheating to harm delicate fabrics.
- The ironing surface is tapered at the back so you can iron into difficult places with either end.

Commitment to Asylum Ruled "Family Quarrel"

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 9—William Wrobbel, 46, of Newark, former mayor of Bloomingburg (Fayette county), had his freedom today following a habeas corpus hearing before Common Pleas Judge John R. King who ruled that Wrobbel had been committed to Columbus State hospital because of a family quarrel.

Two psychiatrists testified at the hearing yesterday that Wrobbel was not mentally ill. He was committed to the hospital Aug. 30 by Licking county probate court on his wife's complaint that he had broken up the furniture.

"This is simply the result of a family quarrel," Judge King said in his decision. "He was not justified in breaking the furniture. She aggravated and exasperated him."

German V-2 Rocket Launched Successfully from Air Carrier

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9—Naval warfare entered an awesome new phase with the first shipboard firing of a 15-ton V-2 rocket in a secret weekend test by the carrier Midway far out in the Atlantic ocean.

The Navy provided few details but quoted its top expert in guided missiles, Read Admiral D. V. Gallery, as saying "this launching will mark the beginning of a new era in naval weapons."

Although the test rocket exploded after traveling only six miles, the experiment indicated land targets could be pounded with such projectiles from warships operating far offshore.

200 Mile Range

The Germans were firing the 46-foot V-2's up to 200 miles toward the end of World War II, when they concentrated the big weapons on London and Antwerp.

Last night's Navy announcement did not say whether the early destruction of the test rocket Saturday was pre-arranged, but an officer speaking privately indicated the plan had been for a flight to maximum range. The Germans had frequent premature explosions with the V-2, and this was one of the captured missiles.

The firing from the 45,000-ton Midway was witnessed by "leading military and civilian personnel in the field of guided missiles, the Navy said.

It added that immediately after the launching, the Midway's aircraft took off to complete the demonstration of the feasibility of combining rocket and aircraft warfare.

The Navy gave no indication of what modifications were required on the Midway to launch the V-2. Here are some considerations, however:

The Midway class carrier has a deck of heavy armor plate, and thus would be well equipped to hold the weight of the missile and to withstand the heat at launching.

Blast Is Problem

The hot blast of the rocket would obviously be a serious problem, which the Navy may have solved by locating the launcher near the deck edge and sending the blast into the sea.

Because of its mass the Midway rides steadily, and when it does pitch and roll the motion is slow. It would be possible to launch with reasonable accuracy from the deck, as some officers said privately they believed was done.

4-Day-Old Child Dies at City Hospital

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 3 p. m. in the Schaffner-Denzer funeral home on East Center street by Rev. Howard L. Olewiler, pastor of First Presbyterian church. Burial will be in Marion cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7:30 tonight.

Old Stuff

THE railroads' request for freight-rate increases reaching 38 per cent in the east, 28 per cent elsewhere, looks like the grand blow-off for soaring prices. If this one goes through, a dollar will shrink from four bits to two—and don't bet it won't.

A month ago the railroads wanted an increase of approximately 16.7 per cent, but the inflationary spiral is whirling so fast another 10 per cent has been added for good measure, plus specific increases in the handling of certain commodities that figure out at even more.

All this is, of course, the inevitable result of increases in operating cost, including higher wages. The higher wages, of course, were the inevitable result of increases in living costs which, in turn, were the result of increases in operating costs. It's an old story now. The masterminds that thought it would be dandy to make the war boom last forever are at the pinnacle of their suicidal success.

The ICC, a government agency, tells railroads what they can charge. Either in turning down the railroad's request, or granting it, the ICC probably will feel duty-bound to reveal in a flash of bureaucratic insight what needs be done to keep prices from reflecting operating costs. Ten million managers, more or less, will be breathless with suspense.

First, the Blood

WAILS of "Bring back the British!" are being heard in India among the shrieks of terrorists and the moans of the dying. This was bound to happen.

But the British won't be back. The sun has set on the part of the empire called India. It was certain that there would be bloodshed when they left; a huge population untrained for responsibility was in no condition to accept responsibility for governing itself.

Indians running amuck in religious and racial hatred will find what all populations must find when they seek freedom. First, the blood flows. Then, if freedom is deserved, the wounds heal. Freedom cannot be bestowed. It must be earned. It is not so much a condition in political organization as it is a state of mind.

When India's nightmare of murder and violence has lasted a little longer, it may be soon enough to know the chances of freedom.

A Likely Candidate

JOHN E. RANKIN of Mississippi has announced his candidacy for the senate seat of the late Theodore E. Bilbo. As for his chance of being elected, it looks like a shoo-in, like the Yankees' chance in the American league, if Mississippi will forgive the use of the word "Yankees."

If any man in congress is qualified to carry on for Bilbo, it is Representative Rankin. Mississippians who voted for Bilbo will have no hesitation voting for Rankin.

It has been said one reason Mississippi sent Bilbo to the senate was the state's resentment at 'outside interference" in its affairs. That's one of the reasons Rankin will be elected. That's the reason Mississippi will continue sending men of Bilbo's caliber to Washington until it realizes comment on the quality of its representation in Washington isn't outside interference. Mississippi is part of the Union, just like 47 other states.

Two If by Land

THE town of Hempstead, Long Island, which is described as a "horsey" community, has adopted an ordinance requiring that all horses taken for canters after dark must have fore and aft lights like automobiles. This poses a problem, for nature hasn't provided horses with places for lights and their ignition isn't equipped to handle them.

Kerosene lanterns are being tried, but horses don't take kindly to them and it's only a matter of time until one is seared by burning kerosene. Electric lights operated by dry cells under the saddle work somewhat better but they are a nuisance and rather expensive.

Operators of Hempstead's stables are strongly against the ordinance. The horses haven't been pooled but it is probable a vote taken among them also would show a preponderance of neighs.

Ace Up Their Sleeve

THE British are working on an "electric brain" to be known as ACE (automatic computing machine) which will have a considerably greater capacity than its American counterpart, ENIAC (electronic numerical integrator and computer).

British mathematicians believe their device will work out considerably more complicated problems than the American calculator even though it will require fewer vacuum tubes than ENIAC's 18,000. It will have a greater storage capacity, or memory, and will be able to hack its way through masses of decimals like a machete-wielding Moro going through a Philippine thicket.

The day may be near when "pi" extended to 10,000 decimal places is presented at an eagerly waiting world.

News Behind the News

By PAUL MALLON

Unions Actually Have Control of Board They Oppose

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 — The unions are railing the new national labor relations board as a tyrannical oppressor, designing to enslave them—but actually they have control of the board.

A fair summation of the setup there would list three of the five members likely to be very pro-labor on a showdown. Union margin would be 3 to 2. Leaning on the labor side in basic background are Paul Herzog, the old chairman, John Houston, of the old board, and Abe Murdock. Another holdover, James J. Reynold, and a new man, J. Copeland Gray, are classified as likely to be the minority of two on a straight-out issue.

The Republicans are suspicious of the kind of enforcement into which their new reform law might trend. They are saying little or nothing about this, being quite satisfied with initial steps taken, but their fear is well grounded and real. It is merely in abeyance to ascertain if it is justified.

Yet if anything is done to enslave any unions, it will be done by a facially apparent pro-union board.

A tighter question, however, is how well the legally well-endowed new general counsel, Robert Denham, performs. He has enough law behind him apparently, has supervision directly over district offices of the board, and will initiate and follow through on all the prosecuting of cases.

Position of Authority

In such a position he has the opportunity to be wise and fair—or he might slip into unnecessary trouble by either being too harsh or too easy on either side, thus nullifying the chance the law has. Against him stands the Fifth circuit court decision charging him with "false pretense" and unfairness in the Atlas pipeline case.

His administration came in under good auspices. He and his associates recognized they had a good chance to get away to a flying start if they could promptly end the jurisdictional strikes of the film workers in Hollywood. These involved AFL unions and the new law is full of authority against jurisdictional strikes. Boardmen recognized that if they could use their new authority to settle these long strikes—strikes which have worked against all the unions involved, causing bloody heads and unemployment — their best beginning could thus be launched. On the quiet, they started after that situation first.

Frankly, no one around here knows the answer to these sensitive questions as to how the situation will turn. Every one hopes there will be good, sound administration, but concedes the board will have to resist tremendous influences and fight continuously to get what is wanted.

All Republicanism (and management as well) is now alive to the general ignorance of people and workers with provisions of the new. Even the Republican national committee headquarters has lately been taking steps to advertise the features of the act. However, not enough is being done and the unions still plainly are getting the best of publicity.

Union

Polls still show, for instance, the unions are most angry against the new provision "outlawing the closed shop." This provision bans the closed shop in new contracts. Even so, it supports and strengthens union claims to "the union shop," which actually becomes the new closed shop. If a worker must join the union wanted by a majority, after getting work in any shop, then the union has a closed shop—and the new law provides this. The only difference is that the union does not have charge of the hiring. Yet the shop itself is as closed as law could make it.

This provision was not written by the Republicans. It was drafted originally and promoted always by the Democrats and the pro-union people. Opposition to it now by unions could only be due to bad publicity which has caused a misunderstanding of the provisions. Some union leaders contend the old closed shop enables them better to put down recalcitrants in their own ranks by giving the union boss control of hiring for the jobs. Leaders like this have succeeded in convincing the rank and file that prohibition of the closed shop is a device for breaking the unions.

Under fair administration, the true facts will become better known and dispel much current unfavorable propaganda.

If Dewey Comes, Can Taft Be Far?

Senator Taft is off on a 10,000-tour of the west.

It's a long way from Cincinnati to Washington, especially via Philadelphia.

That's because, when your destination is the White House, you must go, not as the crow, but the candidate flies . . . not in a straight line, but with a baited one.

With 1948 just around the corner, the west is getting more wooing than a widow endowed both of lucre and of looks. California doesn't have room for its seasonal tourists on account of its political ones.

It will be interesting to watch the Senator's progress. Occasionally, he may come across reminders, "Dewey was here," but thus far the last man to make the western tour seems to have gotten nothing more than the rest for which he claimed he was going.

Month Before Doomsday

By JOSEPH ALSOP

This is Joseph Alsop's first dispatch from abroad. It deals with the Italian crisis. Others will follow. Stewart Alsop will continue to report from Washington.

ROME, Sept. 9—Here in this ancient city, the surface of life is deceptively tranquil and agreeable. Among their monuments of 2,600 years, among the fountains and the flowers, the people of Rome appear to enjoy themselves without a care for the morrow. Yet here a disaster is preparing which, if not averted, is entirely capable of undermining the whole shaky post-war structure of Europe.

The Italian government is running out of dollars. It is as simple as that. The American public has already received intimations that trouble is afoot. But the dimension, the depth and the extreme urgency of the trouble have not as yet been even vaguely suggested.

In the simplest terms, according to official estimates agreed upon both by Italian and American authorities, the treasury of Italy now contains no more than $45 million of hard cash. That is the entire reserve. That is all the Italian government has to buy abroad the wheat, coal and raw materials without which the Italian people cannot live. Since the government must spend approximately $40 million a month on imports to maintain the life of Italy at the present low level, doomsday is only a few weeks off.

Small Change in U. S.

For us in the complacent United States, with our gigantic budget, it is difficult to conceive the difference that $40 million a month makes in this country. The facts are all too bleakly plain, however.

The rich eat well on the free market, but the average Italian lives on 200 grams of bread daily plus a few drops of oil, a little vegetables and a morsel of cheese. Two hundred grams is less than a pound. A very large proportion of the wheat to make the bread is imported, and this percentage must rise in the months ahead because of this summer's bad harvest. Cessation of wheat purchases in the United States will mean a minimum cut in the bread ration of about one-third.

Furthermore, Italian industry imports the bulk of its raw materials, and requires 12 million tons of foreign coal annually to keep running. There is already serious unemployment in Italy—at least a million and a half are jobless—chiefly because coal imports are currently no more than 10 million tons annually. Of these coal imports, somewhere close to seven million tons must be brought from the United States because of the failure of British and German production.

Industrial Collapse Looms

Thus, if Italy is no longer able to buy coal from America, the entire industrial machine will collapse like a house of cards. With their already inadequate fuel supplies cut by approximately three-quarters, most factories will have to close their doors. It is frightening to calculate what proportion of the six million Italian industrial workers will then be without support.

For a long time the Italian government has been addressing despairing appeals for assistance to the administration in Washington. The first of these appeals must indeed have reached the state department before President Truman made his curious remark that he saw nothing on the horizon demanding a special session. Nor is it any wonder that the Italian government should be desperate. What threatens here in Italy makes the discussions of the Marshall plan in Paris almost wholly academic for the present. If aid of some sort is not immediately forthcoming, Italy will be plunged into starvation and joblessness. Precisely those groups in the population among whom the Communists have made their gains—the industrial workers of the north and the landless agricultural workers—will be hit the hardest. The whole economy will inevitably collapse in a violent surge of inflation. And the ultimate absorption of Italy into the Soviet sphere will become an almost absolute certainty.

Speedy Action Imperative

This is the main outline. Washington can still take steps to avert the disaster, but they must be taken quickly. Meanwhile two things are plain. If this disaster is permitted to occur, all the effort of American policy in the last two years will be wasted. Moreover, if Italy enters the Soviet sphere, the eastern Mediterranean and the Middle East will be cut off, and the rest of western Europe will be in urgent danger. For want of a sum approximately one-third as large as the American female population pours annually into the beauty parlors, the United States will be brought to straits as inherently desperate as the straits of Britain after Munich. This is a crisis worse than the Greek crisis of last winter.

"The Cold War" with Russia

By WALTER LIPPMANN

THE policy of containment which Mr. X. recommends, has to be enforced at "a series of constantly shifting geographical and political points, corresponding to the shifts and maneuvers of Soviet policy." It demands the employment of American economic, political and in the last analysis, American military power at "sectors in the interior of Europe and Asia. This requires, as I pointed out in a previous article, ground forces—that is to say, reserves of infantry, which we do not possess.

The United States cannot by its own military power contain the expansive pressure of the Russians "at every point where they show signs of encroaching." The United States cannot have ready "unalterable counterforce" consisting of American troops. Therefore, the counterforces which Mr. X. requires have to be composed of Chinese, Afghans, Iranians, Turks, Kurds, Arabs, Greeks, Italians, Austrians, of anti-Soviet Poles, Czechoslovaks, Bulgars, Yugoslavs, Albanians, Hungarians, Finns and Germans.

The policy can be implemented only by recruiting, subsidizing and supporting a hetrogeneous array of satellities, clients, dependents and puppets. The instrument of the policy of containment is therefore a coalition of disorganized, disunited, feeble and disorderly nations, tribes and factions around the perimeter of the Soviet Union.

Difficult Undertaking

To organize a coalition among powerful modern states, even in time of war and under dire necessity, an enormous difficult thing to do well—to organize a coalition of disunited, feeble and immature states and to hold it together for a prolonged diplomatic siege, which might last for 10 or 15 years, is, I submit, impossibly difficult.

It would require, however much the real name for it were disavowed, continued and complicated intervention by the United States in the affairs of all the members of the coalition which we were proposing to organize, to protect, and to feed and to use. Our diplomatic agents abroad would have to have an almost unerring capacity to judge correctly and quickly which men and which parties were reliable containers. Here at home, congress and the people would have to stand ready to back their judgments as to who should be nominated, and who should be subsidized, who should be seen through rose-colored spectacles, and who should be made our clients and our allies.

Unfavorable Outlook

Mr. X. offers us the prospect of maintaining such a coalition indefinitely until—eventually—the Soviet power breaks up or mellows because it has been frustrated. It is not a good prospect. Even if we assume, which we ought not, that our diplomatic agents will know how to intervene shrewdly and skillfully all over Asia, the Middle East, and Europe, and even if we assume, which the Department of State cannot, that the American people will back them with a drawing account of blank checks both in money and in military power, still it is not a good prospect. For we must not forget that the Soviet Union, against which this coalition will be directed, will resist and react.

In the complicated contest over this great heterogeneous array of unstable states, the odds are heavily in favor of the Soviets. For if we are to succeed, we must organize our satellites as unified, orderly and reasonably contented nations.

The Russians can defeat us by disorganizing states that are already disorganized, by disuniting peoples that are torn with civil strife and by inciting their discontent, which is already very great.

Poor Building Place

As a matter of fact this borderland in Europe and Asia around the perimeter of the Soviet Union is not a place where Mr. X's "unassailable barriers" can be erected. Satellite states and puppet governments are not good material out of which to construct unassailable barriers. A diplomatic war conducted as this policy demands, that is to say conducted indirectly, means that we must stake our own security and the peace of the world upon satellites, puppets, clients, agents about whom we can know very little. Frequently they will act for their own reasons, and on their own judgments, presenting us with accomplished facts that we did not intend and with crises for which we are unready. The "unassailable barriers" will present us with an unending series of insoluble dilemmas. We shall have either to disown our puppets, which would be tantamount to appeasement and defeat and the loss of face, or must support them at an incalculable cost on an unintended, unforseen and perhaps undesirable issue.

Elliott Takes to the Farm

(Elliott Roosevelt, in partnership with his mother, will operate 842 acres at Hyde Park as the VAN-KILL FARMS, raising fruit and vegetables, Christmas trees, milk cows and beef cattle.)

Farewell to nightclubs and their like—
A farmer's life—yo ho'—
The dance floor stuff must go;
To cows and chickens I now flee
And quit the festive scenes
To go for almost everything
From steers to lima beans!

II

I've been around and seen a lot—
And had my share of fun;
I've never yearned much for a farm.
But now I've switched to one.
Let others write and broadcast, too
And take the city raw—
For me the barnyard melodies
Like "Turkey In The Straw"!

III

The soybean I will cultivate—
(A new type bean for me)—
I'll fly from bean to apple crop
And through a Christmas tree;
I'll hit the hay when farmers do
(At least I'll try my best)—
A fellow in his thirties ought
To get a little rest.

IV

I'll have a fling with milk and cheese—
I'll run a Guernsey herd
And give the Stork Club and the rest
A most derisive "bird."
I'll run a cattle ranch as well—
Of Brahmas I'll have some—
With "Yip-I-Dee" and "Yip-I-Do,"
A rope and wad of gum.

V

"Zeke" Roosevelt or perchance "Hey, Rube!"
I'll hear the people call,
And maybe Fay will be Bo Peep
Or Maud, the Muller gal;
Mom will my busy partner be
And I'll take in the hay
While she tells of "The Eggs and Us"
In column called "My Day"

VI

The rural type I now become
With hayseed in my hair;
(I reckon I'll be happy 'til Wes Pegler stops to stare);
Ah, here's a toast to country life—
The hens, the birds, the bees!
Far from the city's dreadful din
And Brewster inquiries.

VI

The lovely scent of new mown hay—
The lowing herd and all—
Ah, I am not resistant when
I hear the rural call!
My stamp will read "VAN-KILL Was Here"
And warm me up with joy;
I want to stress the word "VAN-KILL
And say it's not KILROY

So Say We All

One of the terrific passages from Ludwig Bemelman's new book, "Dirty Eddie":—

"If a coal miner comes up in a dirty, sweaty shirt into a dirty town, spitting blood and finds he will die before his time, unable to rescue his children from his own fate—if that man lifts his black hands to heaven and says, 'I wish the Russians would take over' I say, right and good logic. But you and the other Stork Club Communists who go out, dressed for dinner, to the houses of the rich every night and who spend your weekends at millionaires' estates and sit at the best tables in the best restaurants, muching caviar and washing it down with vintage champagne—you who travel in drawing rooms of the Superchief and change women the way you do shirts—when you say you wish the Russians would take over, and accuse everyone not in agreement with you of being a Fascist, then I feel like taking your hat and vomiting into."

A CRAZY song which we think could easily become a rage like "Yes, We Have No Bananas," "Horses, Horses, Horses" and 'The Music Goes Round and 'Round":—Arthur Godfrey's "She's Too Fat For Me." Watch it, boys!

Cotton Corners

By TRUMAN TWILL

DEAR NEPHEW: I have been reading about the rapid progress being made on guided missiles that can be lobbed through a thousand miles of space to wipe out cities and devastate great areas of the countryside. What we did to Hiroshima and Nagasaki was child's play. The next time nations go to war, the atomic bombs will be dropped by remote control! A technician will push a button, there will be a long low swoosh and a few minutes later a million people will be smashed to a pulp on some other continent. Or radiation will kill them slowly. Take your choice.

I am making it sound as horrible as it probably will be, because that's what I want to write about in this letter. As time passes, you will read descriptions of the coming horror that will turn your blood to water and make you chatter with fear. Obviously, something must be done about this—something more helpful than the pious hope that it may never happen, or that people of good will may be able to adopt resolutions against it and thereby keep it from happening.

My idea of what anybody with good sense will do is to admit it's true, in the same way that people with good sense admit they are going to die eventually and therefore they had better get accustomed to the idea. Mind you, I am not barring the possibility that people might jump up and get smart enough to stave off extermination of the human race—it doesn't cost anything to be hopeful—but I am suggesting that hope is pretty thin stuff to rely on. If it happens, all well and good, but if it doesn't happen a human being had better be braced for the alternative.

I am prepared to face the grim fact that nothing is going to stop humanity from destroying itself with the powers of destruction people are gradually developing as they grow smarter. I think that is why most of us shuddered when we heard the news in 1945 that the atomic bomb had been dropped; we heard the knell of doom. We knew at last what would happen if scientists ever discovered the secret of releasing atomic energy—they'd release it to kill human beings. There was no more suspense.

The next big move toward wiping out the human race probably won't happen during the remainder of my lifetime, but I wouldn't bet on it. Your guess is as good as mine as to when the blow might fall. But fall it will, unless the greatest miracle of all time occurs. That would be the miracle that would keep humanity from stampeding into the vortex of its mad impulse to destroy itself with the power it has learned to unleash but shows no signs of learning how to use. Do not think this is a gloomy letter. It is not meant to be gloomy, only realistic. It is never gloomy to try to see things as they are, and I am convinced this is the way they are. Incidentally, I'll be willing to pay $50 in coin of the realm to anyone who can convince me things are some other way. Say hello to the family for aunt and for me.

of the two men dragged the gangplank with blood from head wounds was to have been a veteran leader who had urged the s to "fight to the death" When he was dragged from the , the number of Jews deciding to leave peaceably increased noticeably. Most of them were drenched from the streams of water played into the holds.

Those who came quietly were treated gently by the troops along the gangplank. These refugees included women with babes in arms. All carried meager belongings. One British soldier came down the gangplank with a Jewish baby in one arm and a wooden truncheon hanging from the other.

But every so often soldiers struggled down with kicking, squirming men, who were quickly hustled away by military police.

Two Gangplanks

One gangplank was reserved for those who decided to leave peaceably from the Runnymede Park, which the British had said brought "the toughest of the lot" of 4,299 Exodus Jews back to Germany from their long, futile round trip voyage to Palestine. Another gangplank was set aside for those who had to be forcibly ejected as the disembarkation began shortly before noon.

26 Ohio Cities Consider Jump Into Amusement Taxing Field

By The United Press

COLUMBUS, Sept. 9 — Many Ohio cities today were going ahead with plans to levy taxes on the fun and entertainment their residents have after the state abandons its $2,700,000 annual tax on admissions Oct. 1.

At least 26 cities have considered enacting the local tax and in most cases indicate they will favor continuation of the three per cent tax on admissions and amusements now levied by the state.

The recent law passed by the legislature took the state completely out of the field and did not limit the amount of tax which cities could place on their fun-loving residents.

See $40,000 Coming In

Steubenville, Tiffin and Galion have enacted three per cent tax measures and expect to collect about $40,000 annually from this source.

At Steubenville the tax was placed on tickets and admission to cafes and roof gardens where service or cover charges are made but community centers were exempted along with receipts for exclusive use of religious, educational or charitable institutions.

The tax ran into opposition at Newark where city councilmen attempted to extend the field to bingo. Mayor J. E. Neighbor vetoed the three per cent amusement levy as "illegal" because it taxed bingo which is only allowed for the benefit of charitable organizations

Neighbor told Newark council members that the Ohio Chamber of Commerce was studying administration of the tax and that the council — with suggestions from the Chamber — should be able to produce a tax measure which would be consistent with state laws.

Wants Uniform Tax

At Lorain, Mayor P. J. Flaherty inaugurated a drive to establish an agreement on a uniform municipal amusement tax for 1948 in Lorain, Elyria, Oberlin, Wellington and Amherst.

COUNCIL

tion of council, and elective officials

The pay raise justification as contained in the provisions of the ordinance reads: "It is the sense of this council that additional compensation to cope with increasing cost of living should be allowed during the time such increased cost of living prevails"

Adoption of the measure followed a report from the finance committee submitted by Councilman D. R. Biggert, Fourth ward, in which the raise was recommended. Council's vote on the measure was unanimous.

City garbage department employes had met with the finance committee and Safety-Service Director E. O. Uncapher in a series of meetings during the last month relative to garbagemen's demands for additional pay. Garbagemen are affiliated with the United Public Workers of America, a CIO union.

To Change Lights

Also passed as an emergency measure was a resolution authorizing the Ohio Public Service to change the location of the following streetlights light north of the westbound track on North State street to the corner of Quarry and North State streets; a light on Campbell street be moved south 50 feet and new lamp installed at north end of the street; light located 50 feet north of Quarry and North Greenwood streets be moved north 75 feet and a 250 watt lamp installed and light at Pearl and Columbia streets be increased to 250 watts.

Safety service director, E. O. Uncapher was authorized to apply for and to obtain electric service from the Ohio Public Service company for operation of the Municipal sewage equipment works. Inasmuch as no other source of electric service is available for the required purpose, council deemed it unnecessary to advertise for bids.

Two public hearings were conducted on transfers of residential to commercial districts. No opposition to either of the proposed ordinances appeared at council and the measures were unanimously passed. The first was on the application of B. R. Hurst of 107 Superior street to erect flower shop on his property at Delaware avenue and Superior streets. L. D. Stull, 637 Delaware, a neighbor to Hurst appeared requesting that the change be made stating he thought the Hurst enterprise would be an asset to that neighborhood. The second hearing concerned the transfer of 75 feet off the east side of two adjacent lots in the South-We Go addition.

Object to Speeding

A delegation of residents of the section of East George street between North Greenwood and Jefferson streets appeared to seek action on alleged speeding along that section of George street which they said endangers the lives of children.

Speeding trucks and congested traffic on the street are creating a serious condition, Kenneth Armbruster of 240 East George street, spokesman for the group said. A young woman in the group reminded council that a lad from that neighborhood has been in Childrens hospital in Columbus for the past seven years as a result of a traffic accident on East George street. The delegation asserted police had been notified but had not acted to alleviate the situation. They suggested elimination of heavy truck traffic through the street and a possible parking restriction to one side of the street. Mr. Slack promised the matter would be investigated by the municipal service committee.

AFL CHIEFS WEIGH ENTRY INTO POLITICS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Sept. 9—AFL leaders today considered a headlong plunge into politics to strike back at legislative supportrs of the Taft-Hartley labor act.

The 15-man executive council weighed the advisability of abandoning the AFL's traditional policy of "supporting our friends and defeating our enemies" and replacing it with an all-out political action campaign like the rival CIO's.

The kind of action under study would entail much more work at the polls by AFL unions than ever before—members of the council said.

Reason for the prospective full-fledged entry into politics, they said, is enactment of the Taft-Hartley measure which AFL leaders have called a "slave labor act."

The AFL council is considering by-passing the act's machinery as administered by the national labor relations board, but delayed a final decision on that until Friday—last day of its current session.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9—Selling dried up in today's market with assorted leaders shifting to the recovery side but exceptions were plentiful.

A bidding flurry developed at the end of the first hour although it failed to follow through.

Some short covering and quick-turn buying were attributed to the idea that the recent decline called for a technical revival.

United Fruit and Canadian Pacific were propped by pleasing dividends but other stocks concerned ignored disbursements. Ahead at intervals were Bethlehem, Goodrich, Douglas Aircraft, Consoldiated Vultee, Anaconda, American Can and Great Northern Railway. Occasional stumblers included U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, Sears Roebuck, Du Pont, Union Carbide, Westinghouse, Allied Chemical, Santa Fe and Standard Oil (NJ).

U.S. OVERPAYMENTS SET AT $500,000,000

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9— Rep Bender (R-Ohio) today estimated overpayments on canceled war contracts have totaled nearly $500,000,000 and said a public explanation will be demanded of companies which fail to return the money.

Bender is the chairman of a house expenditures subcommittee investigating contract terminations which was called into session today.

As the first witness, E. L. Fisher, an official of the general accounting office, filed a report listing overpayments which he said ranged as high as $650,355 The top sum was received by an aircraft manufacturer Fisher did not identify.

Bender said the committee "will watch closely the effectiveness of the federal agencies in securing recoveries by voluntary means" in overpayment cases where no legal machinery for recovery now exists.

"If recoveries are not effected during the next six weeks," he said in a statement, "the subcommittee will summon representatives of the individual companies which have received the largest overpayments to present their reasons for not making a return of money which they have received from the government which was not properly due them."

He said the committee will question justice department officials Thursday concerning prosecution of cases in which the general accounting office has reported actual fraud.

A review of contract settlements, he said, shows that excessive payments in which no fraud was apparent exceed the amount of actual fraud.

FOURTH DISTRICT ELECTION CALLED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 9—Gov Thomas J. Herbert today called a special primary Oct 7 and a special election Nov. 4 in the Fourth Ohio congressional district to pick a successor to Robert F. Jones of Lima, who resigned Sept 2 as congressman to become a member of the federal communications commission.

Copies of Herbert's election proclamation were sent to sheriffs of the six counties comprising the district—Allen, Auglaize, Darke, Mercer, Miami and Shelby.

The governor said sentiment appeared general throughout the district for an opportunity to elect a successor to Jones.

The district Republican committee recently unanimously requested Herbert to call the election

Jones was serving his fourth term in congress when he resigned. He was Allen county prosecutor from 1935 to 1939.

Dewey Fetter of Lima, Allen county Republican chairman, already has announced his candidacy for the congressional vacancy.

William M. McCulloch of Piqua, former speaker of the Ohio house of representatives, has been mentioned as another possible Republican candidate.

Democratic sources indicated that State Rep Roy E Harmony of Sidney would enter the Democratic primary.

Houswives will be asked to use powdered milk, oleomargarine and other substitutes, she said.

Mrs. Senn said plans called for 75 members of her group, supplemented by 75 volunteers from other organizations, to telephone five women each to help in the boycott and that each woman called would be asked to telephone five additional friends and keep the chain going.

Rail Strike Conference Reported in Deadlock

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 9—Negotiations to end the five-day strike of 1,800 operating employes of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation's inter-plant railroad remained deadlocked today despite reports of "some progress."

The contract dispute involving a 50-cents-an-hour package wage boost has idled basic operations of the nation's biggest steel producer, a U. S. Steel Corporation subsidiary, and caused the layoff of 17,000 of its 35,000 employes. The company estimates its production loss at 20,000 tons of finished steel a day.

TAFT-HARTLEY ACT TO GET VOTE TEST

By The Associated Press

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Sept. 9 — Pennsylvania's Eight congressional district—traditional Republican stronghold—today became a testing ground for sentiment on the controversial Taft-Hartley labor law.

In the rich farming and industrial district comprising Lehigh and Bucks counties, voters selected a representative to succeed the late Charles L. Gerlach, Republican.

Democratic candidate Phil H Storch, 36-year-old newspaperman and president of the CIO-Lehigh Valley Newspaper guild, conducted his campaign with the support of organized labor in a declared attempt to start a trend toward repeal of the Taft-Hartley law

Storch was opposed by Franklin H Lichtenwalter, 37-year-old Republican speaker of the Pennsylvania house of representatives and defenders of the labor bill as "bi-partisan legislation" passed by majorities of both major parties over the President's veto

Gerlach represented Pennsylvania's Eight district for 10 years, winning his fifth consecutive term in 1946 with a 15,000-vote majority.

PREXIES, IRISH POLISH PLAYS FOR GRID OPENERS FRIDAY

Harding Preps for Game Here At Stadium Against Fostoria

With nowhere to go but up, Harding's 1947 football team will begin its gridiron wars Friday at 8 p. m. at the local stadium against Fostoria, a team Coach "Pete" Howison believes may be the toughest opponent the Prexies will meet.

Twelve lettermen from last year's hard-luck team are back with a year's bitter experience behind them and the promise of better days ahead.

The 1946 squad lost eight and tied one. This season's opposition is not expected to be as tough as that of last but the Presidents still will be playing in rougher company than they did in the days when they dominated the old North Central Ohio league.

Whipped Upper Arlington

The team has shown hustle in its practice scrimmages and Saturday showed power as it sank Upper Arlington, 48-6, in a practice game.

Harding's brand new coaching staff—Howison, Kenny Somerlot, Howard Thomas and George Keel—while naturally pleased, are inclined to take that victory lightly.

They point out that Upper Arlington lost its 1946 squad and is rebuilding with green and light boys not likely to reach the caliber of the foes the Prexies will meet in regular play.

They praised the local blocking and tackling but cautioned that the pass defense is weak and the contest was no true indication of what Harding may do this season.

Starting Lineup

Fostoria last year was a co-champion of the Buckeye league with a record of six won, two lost and one tied. Two returnees were All-Buckeye league. They are co-captains right half Robert Bomer and tackle George Thaillkill. Left end Ray Pastorious received honorable mention.

The schedule: Sept. 12, Fostoria; Sept. 19, Columbus South; Sept. 26, at Tiffin Columbian; Oct. 3, Uhrichsville; Oct. 10, Lima South; Oct. 17, at Findlay; Oct. 23, at Ashland; Oct. 31, Circleville; Nov. 7, at Sandusky; Nov. 14, Fremont.

Softball Schedule

TUESDAY

St. Mary 1 vs. Forest Lawn, Dulin and Klingel; Moose vs. Schlairet, Klingel and Dulin. Both games will be played at Crystal Lake park the first to start at 6:30 p. m.

THURSDAY

Moose vs. Tong, Dulin and Conkle; Trinity vs. the winner of the St. Mary-Forest Lawn game. Both games will be held at Crystal Lake park, the first to start at 6:30 p. m.

Marion Man Called End Prospect for Army 11

Stewart Young, son of Mrs. Hector S. Young, of 282 Clover avenue, is a likely prospect at end in the 1947 Army football team, The Associated Press reported today. Young is a former football star at Harding High school.

Army will enter the 1947 football season with only three starters from its great 1946 team, Coach Earl Blaik said.

Reds To Honor Bucky Walters

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9 — Bucky Walters, veteran right-hander, who helped pitch the Cincinnati Reds to a pair of pennants and a world championship, takes over Crosley Field tonight.

Bucky will be honored in a special pre-game presentation program and then will take the mound in quest of the 198 victory of his major league career.

The Boston Braves will provide opposition for the contest and Manager Billy Southworth has called upon his classy southpaw, Warren Spahn, to face the Redlegs.

Bucky, now 37, won 22 games and lost 10 in 1940 when the Reds again won the pennant and then trimmed the Detroit Tigers in the World Series.

Walters, whose Cincinnati record shows 159 victories and 103 defeats, injured his arm while pitching a 2-0 shutout against the St. Louis Cardinals, July 31, 1945. He goes into tonight's game with seven victories and a like number of defeats this season.

YANKS MAY DRAW 2,500,000 FANS

Pass 2 Million; Lose to Tribe as Giants Edge Bucs.

By The Associated Press

The magnetic New York Yankees, only baseball club to lure 2,000,000 fans past the turnstiles in a single season, not only have repeated the stunt today, but give promise of making it two and a half million before the season is over.

With 53,101 coming out to the Yankee stadium to watch last night's tussle with the Cleveland Indians, the Yankees now have attracted 2,023,643 paid admissions in 62 home games. That is an average gate per game of 32,639.

Yesterday's crowd was treated to a brilliant bit of relief pitching by Bob Feller, the Indians' great righthander, who saved a 4-3 victory for Bob Lemon with some tremendous clutch hurling. Rapid Robert came to the rescue of Lemon in the last of the ninth with the Yankees having runners on first and third and nobody out.

Feller promptly forced Billy Johnson to raise a soft pop to third baseman Ken Keltner, got Aaron Robinson on a tap in front of the plate and ended the game by fanning Phil Rizzuto. Joe DiMaggio and George McQuinn had opened the inning with singles off Lemon.

In the only other game played in the majors, the New York Giants spotted the Pittsburgh Pirates eight runs in the first seven innings, then went on to win, 10-6.

Johnny Mize failed to hit a homer and thus fell three behind Babe Ruth's pace-setting record of 60.

NORRIS WINS TENNIS CUNNINGHAM TROPHY

As a result of his victory Norris will have possession of the Cunningham Memorial trophy for the next year. In order to progress to the finals he had to defeat Newton Cunningham, the donor of the award, in semi-finals.

Results of the tournament were, first round: Newt Cunningham over Lee Prettyman 6-1, 6-3; Stewart Norris over William Wachtelhausen 6-3, 6-4; George Wood over Fred Ruhl by forfeit, Tom Clark over Bud Mathiot, 7-5, 8-6, semi-finals; Norris over Cunningham 6-3, 6-3, and 6-1, and Clark over Wood 6-2, 7-5, and 6-4.

MARTINS FERRY FOOTBALL ACE STRICKEN WITH POLIO

School's Grid Hopes Dwindle As Twin, Coach Dad Quarantined.

By International News Service

MARTINS FERRY, Sept. 9—The hopes of the Martins Ferry High school football team suffered a setback yesterday when Rodger Thomas, 16-year-old twin son of Coach Fred Thomas, developed infantile paralysis.

The entire Thomas family was ordered isolated for 14 days in an effort to prevent possible spread of the disease. Rodger's twin brother, Richard, also is a football star at the school.

In an emergency session, the Martins Ferry board of education directed that assistant coaches take over direction of the football squad until all danger of spread of the polio is gone. School officials said school and football practice would go on as scheduled unless more polio cases developed.

Vernon's Darl Gatchel Once Smeared Harding

It was back in 1934, a year before Harding stadium was completed, that a slightly-built Bucyrus High halfback intercepted a pass to set up the touchdown that spelled a 6-0 defeat for the Marion Harding Presidents.

The alertness and skill of this halfback brought gloom to the Prexy camp on that particular day, but such is not the story today. For this halfback is no longer an opponent. He's Darl Gatchell, who is helping develop promising young athletes for Harding High as head football, basketball and track coach at Vernon Junior High school.

Gatchell served in the same coaching capacities at Vernon last season.

A graduate of Bucyrus High school with the class of 1935, Darl was a regular halfback for the Redmen. He kept up his football activities at Bowling Green State university, where he got his sheepskin in 1941. He was also a member of the Bowling Green golf team in his senior year.

In Army Air Corps

After college graduation, Gatchell accepted the job as basketball and baseball coach at Cridersville High school in Auglaize county. He was at this school during the 1942 season and soon thereafter entered the Army Air Corps.

Gatchell attained the rank of captain in the Air Corps. His service included over two years' duty as a weather officer with a fighter and dive bomber outfit of the Ninth Air Force in Europe. He received his discharge in January, 1946.

Gatchell is not to be outdone by his Marion coaching colleagues in the educational department. He is studying toward his master's degree in school administration in the college of education, Ohio State university. He has completed eight hours of graduate work.

In addition to the major competitive sports, Gatchell is quite a golfing enthusiast. He plays most of his golf on the local Mar-O-Del course, where he usually shoots "between 79 and 85" for 18 holes.

DARL GATCHELL

Approves Booster Program

Darl is a strong supporter of the Football Betterment Program and the revised setup for junior high school athletics.

He remarks: "The new program is certainly a forward-looking step. The same can be said for the new Tri-City Junior High league. The boys should get an excellent grounding in interscholastic competition by playing teams from other cities in addition to local teams."

Gatchell is married and lives at 126 West Farming street. In addition to his coaching duties, he will teach seventh grade science at Vernon.

SALE OF 1ST IRISH GRID DUCATS BEGINS

St. Mary Students Offer Tickets to Game, Sept. 18.

An advance sale of tickets for the first game of the season between Lima St. Rose and St. Mary teams Thursday, Sept. 18, was launched today by the pupils of St. Mary grade and high school under the sponsorship of Marion Council No. 671, Knights of Columbus. This is the only game for which there will be an advance sale of tickets and competition promises to be keen among the pupils.

Lima St. Rose and St. Mary High are rivals of long standing and the opening game has all the earmarks of being one of the outstanding tilts of the season. The game is one of three home games on the team's schedule this year, the others being set for Oct. 24 and Nov. 7 when the players meet Richwood and Mt. Gilead, respectively.

In charge of the ticket sale are Rev. Elmer H. Boyden, assistant pastor of St. Mary Catholic church, Sister Gabrielle, superior and principal of the parochial school and Floyd H. Cornely of the Knights of Columbus.

Softball To Be Played Under Lights This Week

City softball will be played under the lights tonight and Thursday because of the rapidly shortening days. The St. Mary 1-Forest Lawn Sunday School league second round championship game will be the first at Crystal Lake park tonight at 6:30 p. m. and the Moose-Schlairet, Commercial league second round championship game will be the second.

Thursday Moose will meet Tong and Trinity will play the winner of the St. Mary 1-Forest Lawn game for the Sunday School league championship.

In 1926 Notre Dame defeated Beloit, 77-0, for the largest score ever run up by Rockne's gridders.

St. Mary To Start Campaign Afield Against Delaware Willis

The St. Mary Irish gridders take off for Delaware Friday to tangle with the Panthers of Delaware Willis High school in a night game scheduled to start at 8 o'clock.

The Irish will be looking for their first football victory over the Willis boys, as the two teams play their initial tilt of the season.

The Irishmen, low in reserve strength, will put that Panther through the hoops, says Coach Eugene F. Fetter, if no first string injuries develop.

Look Good at O.N.U.

The boys made a fine showing against Ohio Northern university Saturday in a scrimmage at Ada, St. Mary making one touchdown against the college boys, while Ohio Northern scored five.

Delaware Willis, with but five lettermen back, none of whom are all-stars, is light this year, and will depend on speed and a T formation. Only regular Panther to return in the lineup is right end Buck Jones.

The Irish have 10 lettermen back including veteran T-formation ball handlers Dick Schuler at quarterback, halfbacks Bob Stuber and Ed Murphy, and fullback John Baldauf. Probable starting Irish line includes veterans Jim Moloney and Tom Wagner at ends, Dick Werley and Gene Cooper, tackles, and Kevin Krigbaum and All-Mid-State Joe Maniaci at the guard positions. Dan Smith will start at center.

Tied Last Year

Last year the two teams tied 6-6. Willis High season record last year was three wins, five losses, and one tie, while the Irish won four, last three, and tied two.

St. Mary football schedule: Sept. 12, at Delaware Willis; Sept. 18, Lima St. Rose; Sept. 26, at Carey; Oct. 3, at Tiffin Calvert; Oct. 10, at Marysville; Oct. 17, at Columbus St. Mary; Oct. 24, Richwood; Oct. 31, at Sunbury; Nov. 7, Mt. Gilead.

Mid-State Leaguers To Meet Here Tonight

The Mid-State league will hold its first meeting of the current school year at Hotel Harding tonight.

Member teams of the loop are St. Mary, Marysville, Richwood, Mt. Gilead and Carey. Carey has replaced Sunbury in the league, Sunbury having dropped out at the end of the 1946-1947 basketball season.

Top Relief Job Hurled by Feller

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Sept. 9— Cleveland's Indians rested today, but thanks to brilliant relief hurling by Bobby Feller they were out in front in their two-game series with the New York Yankees.

The fireballer, who flew here yesterday after keeping a vigil in Waukegan, Ill., with his wife who is expecting a baby, entered the game in the ninth and retired the next three batters to win a 4-3 contest.

Bob Lemon, the winning hurler, had limited the Yankees to four blows up to the ninth.

McQuinn, the sparkplug of the Yanks' attack, drove in their first two runs with successive homers while Lemon brought in the Tribe's winning run with a single in the eighth.

Feller will face the Yanks again tomorrow when the teams wind up their series with a single contest.

Smith Hurls 4-Hitter As Bruins Trim Richmond, 11 to 0

Special to The Star

RICHMOND, Ind., Sept. 9 — Playing errorless ball behind the masterful four-hit pitching of Frank Smith, the Marion Cubs took Richmond 11-0 last night in the last of a four-game series played in Richmond. The Cubs split the series 2-2.

No Richmond runner got past second base and the only extra base hit Smith allowed came when Buerger doubled in the fourth with two away.

The Cubs are idle today, but will return Wednesday night to play a benefit game with Muncie, sponsored by the junior auxiliary of the women's board of Marion City hospital.

The Cubs stay in Marion through Sunday, playing Muncie Thursday and Friday, and Richmond Saturday and two games Sunday.

Capitalizing on Richmond errors and lack of control by Richmond pitchers, the Cubs collected nine unearned runs, five of them in the first inning off three hits, three bases on balls and Richmond errors. Richmond starting pitcher Swain was relieved by Markley in the first with two out. Four more unearned runs were made in Markley's seven and two thirds innings.

Markley allowed ten hits, and walked three. Carr worked for Richmond in the ninth.

Burbrink's Average Slips but Still Tops OSL Batting Marks

Despite a slump of 11 points to .380 Marion's Nelson Burbrink still roosts 19 points above his nearest rival, Tom Florence, Muncie shortstop in the race for the Ohio State league batting crown according to figures released today by the Howe News Bureau.

Florence registered in second place at .361 while Lima's Jack Maisch skidded down the scale nine counters to .358 and third ranking.

Maisch is the leading slugger in the circuit with three firsts on 167 hits, 232 total bases and 34 doubles.

Top run producer is Fowler of Newark with an even 100 RBI's, while Ken Lien of Zanesville is showing the way with 15 triples and Bob Shuford is high man with a dozen four baggers. Fastest on the base paths is Muncie's Howie Locke who has stolen 39 hassocks.

While Cy Lambert is pacing the all-season twirlers with 22 victories and 7 losses, Zanesville's Tom Sieradski boasts the enviable record of 10 straight wins without a loss.

MANSFIELD GRIDDER ILL

By The Associated Press

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Sept. 9 — An attack of appendicitis hit the University of Maryland football team yesterday right where it hurt the worst—in the line—when Ray Beard, promising freshman tackle, was hauled off to the hospital for an operation. Beard, a 205-pounder from Mansfield, O., looked good in scrimmage Saturday, and then came down with the attack yesterday. Trainer Duke Wybe took him to Sibley hospital, Washington, where Beard was reported "resting comfortably."

OHIO STATE GUARD SHELVED BY INJURY

First Stringer Dick O'Hanlon Strains Thigh Muscle.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, Sept 9—Dick (House) O'Hanlon, first string Ohio State university football guard, was temporarily on the shelf today because of a strained thigh muscle.

However, his loss was offset somewhat by the return of Mike Cannavino, right halfback, who had been laid up from a similar injury suffered in pre-season practice

Trainer Ernie Biggs said the 235-pound O'Hanlon, a whirlwind at leading interference, would be in dry dock until at least Wednesday His absence from the squad was expected to give both Dave Templeton and Tom Snycer an opportunity to show Coach Wes Fesler their ability as Buckeye linemen.

Candidates for the varsity displayed some stiffness in yesterday's practice following Sunday's inactivity Fesler's broad grin indicated he was not too much displeased with what he termed a poor workout.

Fesler let his charges go full force in scrimmage for the first time but appeared careful not to let them overdo it.

300 ATTEND CLINIC ON FOOTBALL RULES

An estimated 300 fans attended the rules clinic conducted by Marion Hinklin and Coach Eugene Fetter of St. Mary High school at Harding stadium last night

Hinklin explained the rules with the assistance of the St Mary football team, which ran through a dummy game committing some of the common errors for which a team is penalized

Approximately 35 changes have been made in football rules this season. Hinklin said Most of them have been to clarify rules already in effect, so will go unnoticed by the fans however

A new change concerns the inbounds mark, which was formerly 45 feet from the sidelines This year it will be 53 feet four inches in, which is one third the width of the field

A provision is made this year whereby teams can substitute one man while time is in, providing he enters the game while the referee is standing over the ball at the scrimmage line

Various other rules that have been in effect were also explained, Hinklin showing where an official may catch many infractions that a spectator misses

After the Irish gridders had demonstrated the rules, Coach Fetter sent them through a short scrimmage

FAREWELL IS HELD FOR PASTOR, FAMILY

Rev. and Mrs. Roebuck Honored by Congregation.

A farewell for Rev. Garrison Roebuck, pastor of First Evangelical United Brethren church here the last six years, and for Mrs. Roebuck and their family was held Monday night by the congregation in the Community house. About 150 attended. The Roebucks are leaving Marion to make their home on a farm near Rockford, which will be Rev. Roebuck's headquarters for evangelistic work. The farm is located east of Rockford at state route 117 and national route 127. Rev. and Mrs. Roebuck were both reared in that community and he was pastor at Rockford prior to coming here.

In charge of Mrs. Robert Brown was a program which included numbers by the Sunday school orchestra, congregational singing, selections by the Men's chorus, reading by Mrs. Russell Nickol and talks by various members of the congregation and by Rev. and Mrs. Roebuck.

The family was presented a purse of more than $200 from friends and members of the church. An expression of appreciation was made by Rev. Roebuck. It was mentioned that during the pastorate of Rev. Roebuck here, a list of 160 new members has been added to the church roll, and a building fund has increased to approximately $70,000, twice as much as was in the fund when he came here as pastor. Rev. Roebuck has been active in interdenominational work in the city as well as in his own denomination. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs Clarence Jones.

Rev. D. H. Hochstettler, newly appointed pastor, is expected to move Thursday with his family into the parsonage at 227 South Prospect street. He was named pastor here at recent session of the Sandusky conference of the denomination which met at St. Marys. The Roebucks will move to their new home tomorrow.

LONG SKIRTS LAID TO DESIRE FOR CHANGE

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9—Women wanted a change from wartime styles, "any kind of change," and that's the reason for today's long skirts, says George K. Creighton, assistant general manager of the National Retail Dry Goods association.

Speaking to the annual convention of the National Industrial Stores association, Creighton said Monday the decision to lengthen the hemline "was far from a reckless enterprise because women wanted a change."

He added it was too early to determine whether long skirts were being accepted throughout the nation. But if they are not, he went on, manufacturers will not fabricate them on a large scale.

Joseph B. Hall, president of the Kroger Co., told the convention his organization's sale of meats had been stepped up through self-service and with it the sales of various types of offal.

"Perhaps people buy such things as heart, kidney, liver, tripe, and brains because they are wrapped in cellophane, or because they can just pick them up and do not have to ask for them."

Industrial League Ends Softball Play for '47

Play in the Industrial softball league ended Monday with Quaker Oats slamming out a 13-5 victory over Ohio Associated Telephone, a 10-run fifth inning turning the trick.

A scheduled Sunday School league game between Epworth and St. Mary 2 resulted in Epworth winning by forfeit.

SUSPENDED FINE GIVEN MARION MAN

Robert Collins Pleads Guilty To Abandoning Children.

Robert Collins, 27, of 625 West Columbia street, was fined $100 and costs in Probate Judge Edward J. Ruzzo's court Saturday after pleading guilty to a charge of abandoning his family and leaving them penniless. The fine was suspended after Collins and his wife were reconciled. The family plans to leave Marion Mr. Collins told the court.

A woman, returned to Marion with Collins after the pair was picked up by the sheriff at Catlettsburg, Ky., last week, was fined $100 and costs when she pleaded guilty to a charge of contributing to the neglect and dependency of minor children aged two years and eight months respectively. Her fine was suspended and she was ordered to leave the city by Judge Ruzzo.

favorable letters. We have received very encouraging reports on action in states that Senator Taft will visit on his tour of the west. I have had about 2,500 letters from party leaders throughout the country. Some of them were surprising."

Brown said, however, "Sen Taft is not going to California seeking delegates. He will discuss the accomplishments of congress.'

Taft's far west tour will cover California, Nevada, Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming and Colorado. His first engagement will be participation in a panel discussion on "State's rights and federal control" and "labor management legislation" Friday afternoon and evening at Santa Cruz, Calif., before the California State Bar association.

At a news conference yesterday, Taft said he knew of no domestic issue that would necessitate a special session of congress before next January. He said he foresaw general tax reduction as one of the major items to be considered by the next regular session.

The senator expressed the opinion that the Taft-Hartley labor law would not be a major issue in the 1948 campaign.

"Most provisions of the law," he said, "offend labor leaders but not the members whom they protect. There is no special provision of the law on which they can make a special issue. A great many of the provisions of the bill are for the benefit of the individual members."

Mrs. Taft, who is accompanying the senator on the tour, will speak at a luncheon of the Republican women's clubs in Seattle, Wash., Sept. 24.

V.F.W. TO VOTE ON COMMANDER TODAY

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Sept. 9 — The Veterans of Foreign Wars ballot today for a new commander-in-chief and officials freely predict Ray H. Brannaman of Denver, will win on the first vote.

Delegates had only a few loose ends to tie in completing committee reports, electing officers, and then adjourning the 48th annual encampment.

Chief controversial issue remaining, said officials, is a resolution favoring admission of displaced persons into the United States.

Wearied by a parade that lasted almost three hours, about 2,000 delegates convened last night to consider resolutions and in the course of the evening learned their organization had a deficit of $432,501.

James T. A Carberry, New York department commander, listed these causes for the deficit:

1. Failure of income to reach expectations. 2. Decrease on revenue from the annual poppy sale. 3 Lower advertising revenue for Foreign Service, monthly V.F.W. magazine.

Later Louis E. Starr, retiring commander-in-chief, said he did not think the deficit would affect the V.F.W. as a going organization.

Starr said part of the deficit was due to a loss of 400,000 members, most of whom had moved.

"When the budget was approved a greater income was anticipated," Starr declared. "When it became apparent that income was going to be less we immediately started to curtail expenditures."

A committee recommended an immediate retrenchment program

In predicting that Brannaman would succeed Commander-in-Chief Starr, some officials declared that Lyall T. Beggs of Madison, Wis. would be elected senior vice-commander-in-chief. Both are World War I veterans. The convention also was expected to select St. Louis for the 1948 encampment and Miami for 1949

Band of Children Save Cincinnatian From Derailment

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9—Prompt action of a band of youngsters saved the Baltimore and Ohio railroad "Cincinnatian" from "almost certain derailment yesterday at Cozaddale, in neighboring Warren county, Engineer Fred L. Dean of Chillicothe, O., said today.

Dean told newsmen he slowed the train down after Fireman George Myers, also of Chillicothe, shouted a warning. He said a band of children came running up the tracks, waving their arms.

"I threw on the emergency brakes," he said, "and it was just in time. The train rolled to a stop less than 50 feet from a big coal truck, stalled on the tracks.

"It was loaded with five or six tons of coal. Without a doubt, it would have been enough to cause a derailment."

The Cincinnatian, which runs daily between Baltimore and Cincinnati, had five loaded passenger coaches and several baggage cars.

RAILWAY MEN STUDY ADDED PAY DEMAND

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, Sept. 9—Wage committees of the five operating railroad brotherhoods will meet here Sept. 19 to consider adding a pay boost request to previous demands for changes in 44 working rules.

Two of the unions—the firemen and enginemen, and the trainmen—already have gone into the wage question. Members of the former asked a 30-cent hourly hike at their recent convention, and general chairmen of the trainmen have called for an unspecified boost.

The other three, the engineers, conductors and switchmen, so far have not taken a stand on pay increases.

Last spring the five unions agreed to work together in seeking the rule changes.

Members of the 17 non-operating rail brotherhoods were awarded a 15½-cent hourly increase last week by an arbitration board.

INDIAN EDITOR ON CLUB PROGRAM HERE

Louis Botwell of Mechanicsburg Addresses Lions.

Louis Botwell of Mechanicsburg, O., a full-blooded Chippewa Indian, was guest speaker Monday at the luncheon-meeting of the Lions club at Hotel Harding.

He talked of the Indian [illegible] and told a mythical legend of how the race came to this continent. Mr. Botwell said that at the present time there are 350,000 Indians in this country, but all are not full-blooded due to the intermarriage of some of the race. Mr. Botwell formerly was a quarterback on Jim Thorpe's Indian football team at LaRue. He now owns and edits the Mechanicsburg Daily Telegraph.

A report of the Booster club was given by John Pickerel. Guests included Mr. Botwell, Howard Bailey and Walter [illegible] of LaRue, Woodrow Armstrong of Cleveland, Fred Kline of Akron, Norman Reichart and Raymond King of Chicago, Louis Bremcamp, Walter Bailey and A. W. Granger of Marion.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

"IF you could learn to keep a civil tongue in your head," Katharine told Dicky, "and not call decent females out of their names, you might sometime have a chance of getting one of your wishes granted."

There was not the sign of a smile on her face, but the irrepressible twinkle in her eyes belied her severity, and Mary's gasp of incredulity was echoed by Dicky.

"Do you mean by any chance," he asked, "that there's a chance in the hot place of your letting Mary out to dine and dance tonight?"

"Wouldn't tomorrow night do as well?" Katharine asked demurely.

"Of course it would!" Dicky responded heartily. "I'd have more time to polish up my sword, and have my lace ruffles for my neck and coat sleeves laundered. I sure will need that sword sharpened," he soliliquized, "if I'm going to take this fair lady out. I shall have to fight my way through crowds of suppliant gents with wolf calls in their throats."

"You're getting your centuries mixed," Katharine told him, smiling. "Besides, you haven't apologized yet for that odious name you pinned on Madge and me."

Dicky Misspoke

"I misspoke myself," Dicky said hastily. "I didn't mean dragonesses, I meant angelesses."

"You shouldn't let your tongue get thick so early in the day," Katharine told him severely as Mary giggled delightedly, and I saw that Katharine's prescription of Dicky for luncheon with Mary was working out admirably.

"But we accept your apology, don't you agree, Madge?" she went on, turning to me.

"Most assuredly," I said heartily, and then Dicky turned to Mary.

"The Lord knows I hate to do this, Brat," he said solemnly. "I am sure we'd have more fun if we two blithe spirits sauntered forth on our own. But I suppose for the sake of the bruised and bleeding hearts we'd leave behind us, we'd better include your spouse and mine, and also our ever-charming Katrina in our expedition tomorrow night. Consider yourselves invited to the brawl," he added, with elaborate pretended insolence to Katharine and me. "Also, please convey my invitation to Noel. He probably wouldn't come if I gave it to him."

"Not if you couched it with the exquisite courtesy you just showed to us," Katharine said. "He'd be suspicious of the 'Greeks bearing gifts.' But, my bucko boy, I'll relieve your mind on one score. The thing I wants the leastest of just now, while Jacks on this expedition, is a night out dancing and dining. But I do crave a whole evening with Faith. So tomorrow night, just look on me as a baby sitter, and you put Madge, Mary and Noel through their giddy paces."

We knew better than to protest, for the shining light in her eyes told us how much she would treasure an evening alone with Faith, who had been in her care so long, and who, I knew, was infinitely dear to my childless kinswoman.

"I'll put them through their paces all right," Dicky commented. "But haven't you any commands to lay on me?"

No Commonsense

"Only that you agree promptly when Madge tells you it's time to quit and come home," Katharine said. "I don't credit either Mary or you with one bit of commonsense about the time she should stay, and Noel's going to want her to leave before the evening's really begun, he'll be so worried about her. But Madge will know when Mary's beginning to feel a bit fatigued, and she'll pass the word along. And then, you-all take yoh feets in yoh hands, and come home pronto."

"Also pdq," Dicky added. "Amen, Katrina. All shall be done just as you say. I'll watch my spouse's eyebrows as if I were a hawk and she were a chicken—although the Lawd knows—" his eyes were filled with mischief as he paused.

"You needn't finish the obvious reference," I said, with pretended hauteur.

Walter's Knock

"Better put your alleged mind on remembering what I've just told you," Katharine said, and her sentence was punctuated by the knock of the waiter from Room Service.

"I realize more and more each day," Dicky said, when the waiter had gone and he was savoring his sea food luncheon, "that I made no mistake, Madge, when I stopped sprinting away and let you throw the matrimonial halter around my trembling neck."

Katharine and Mary laughed derisively.

"'Any hearse driver could have beaten you at the sprinting," Mary said, with a saucy moue at him, and her uncle snatched the conversational ball and kept it in the air through the rest of the luncheon so successfully that Mary did not once look at the clock or speak of her desire to study.

But when at last the luncheon was over, and Dicky, at a signal from me, had departed, she curtsied low to both of us.

"I have to slip it to you," she said. "You prescribed Uncle Dicky as a stimulant, so I'd eat my luncheon without worrying about my lines."

SHE'S OKAY, BUT NOT FOR ME. I KEEP MY DISTANCE.
DON'T TELL ME THAT! THERE'S SOME RED ON YOUR SLEEVE AND SOME ON YOUR CHEEK!
THAT? THAT ISN'T ISABEL. THAT'S ETHYL!

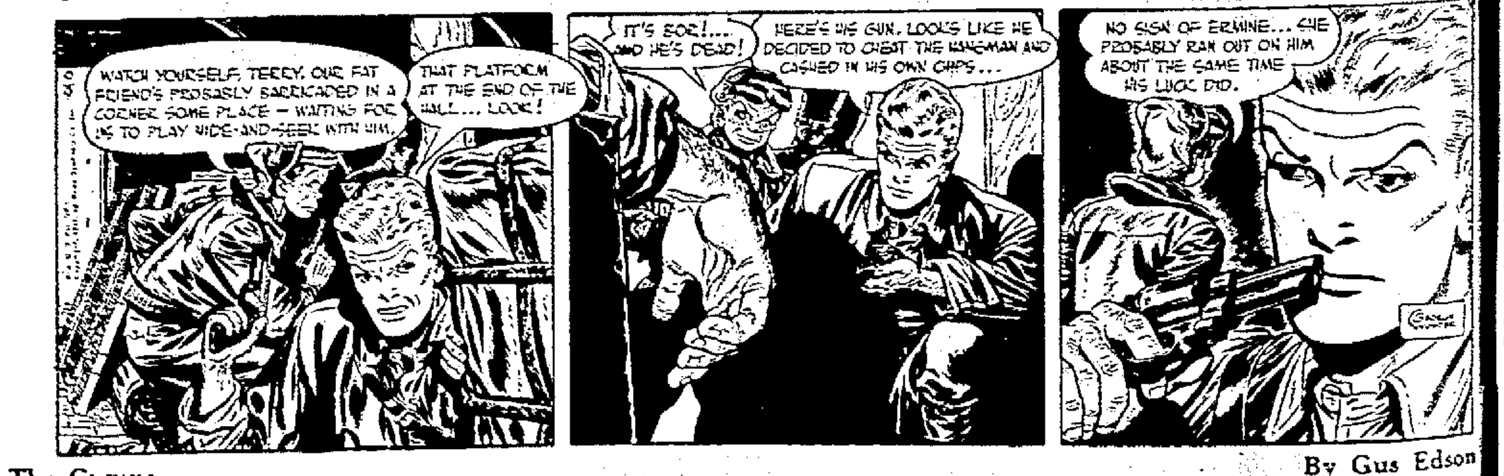
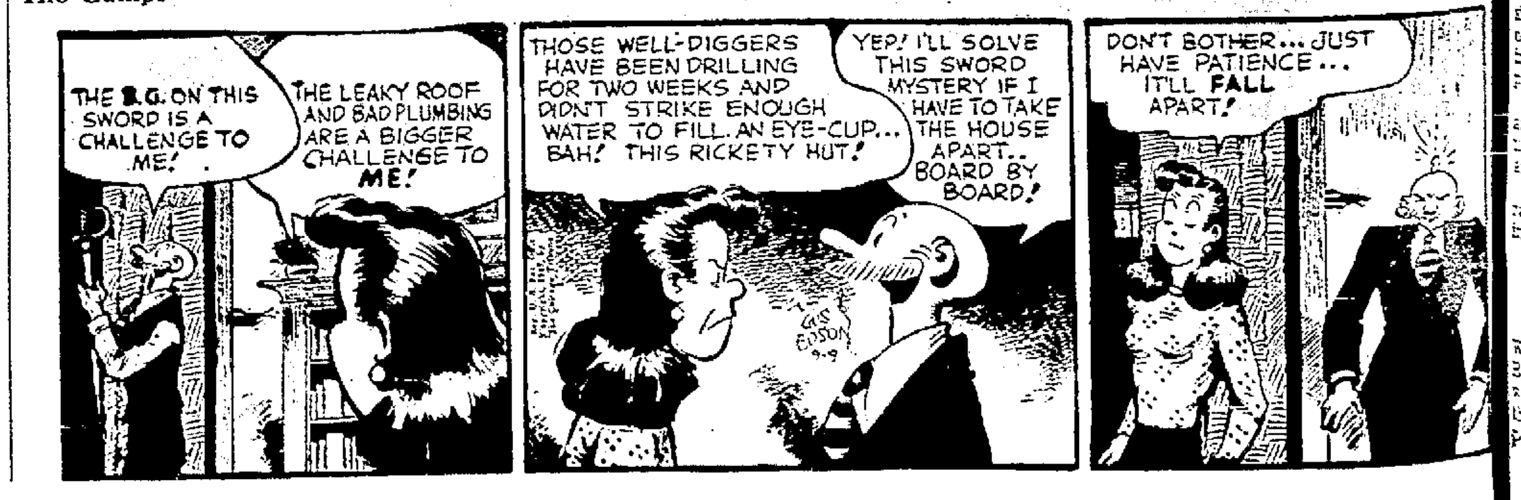
Terry and the Pirates By George Wunder



WATCH YOURSELF, TERRY. OUR FAT FRIEND'S PROBABLY BARRICADED IN A CORNER SOME PLACE — WAITING FOR US TO PLAY HIDE-AND-SEEK WITH HIM.
THAT PLATFORM AT THE END OF THE HALL... LOOK!
IT'S SOC!... AND HE'S DEAD!
HERE'S HIS GUN. LOOKS LIKE HE DECIDED TO CHEAT THE HANGMAN AND CASHED IN HIS OWN CHIPS...
NO SIGN OF ERMINE... SHE PROBABLY RAN OUT ON HIM ABOUT THE SAME TIME HIS LUCK DID.

The Gumps By Gus Edson



THE B.G. ON THIS SWORD IS A CHALLENGE TO ME!
THE LEAKY ROOF AND BAD PLUMBING ARE A BIGGER CHALLENGE TO ME!
THOSE WELL-DIGGERS HAVE BEEN DRILLING FOR TWO WEEKS AND DIDN'T STRIKE ENOUGH WATER TO FILL AN EYE-CUP... BAH! THIS RICKETY HUT!
YEP! I'LL SOLVE THIS SWORD MYSTERY IF I HAVE TO TAKE THE HOUSE APART.. BOARD BY BOARD!
DON'T BOTHER... JUST HAVE PATIENCE... IT'LL FALL APART!
